Easy Monday Witness

Featured is Kevin Harney, author of the book ORGANIC OUTREACH FOR ORDINARY PEOPLE. Filmed at the National Outreach Convention in San Diego.

Section 1

Discuss what you applied in the past seven days from the last OverflowToday show.

Read Colossians 4:3-6

As you apply this verse to your typical weak and your beaten path, name specific people and places that you see this verse applying to.

If you were more mindful of this verse's elements, what would be some specific ways that you could apply this passage to your week?

Section 3

What did you think? What stood out to you as you watched this?

Do you often have people asking you: “What did you do this weekend?” How do you normally answer?

What are some responses Kevin Harney recommended using when answering that question?

When describing your church service or how it impacted you, are there “Christianese” or Christian vocabulary words that you should avoid using? Why? Please give examples.

What did you think about Harney’s opinion that most non-Christians don’t believe that we really believe what we say we believe?

Why does he think that talking about your church service can help the above problem?

Section 4

Discuss some ways we could apply a few of these principles in the next 7 days.

One suggestion (if needed):

Idea, if needed:

All group members should take notes during this Sunday’s church service and teaching. Write down thoughts from the sermon or worship songs that were compelling to you. Then go into Monday with those points in mind as people ask you how your weekend was. To be more intentional on Monday, ask others how their weekend was and wait for them to ask how yours was.

Meet back next week to report on what happened.
